

MEDIA PROFESSIONS

FILM JOBS	Definition
film composer	A film composer is someone who writes and chooses music for a film.
movie extra	A movie extra is someone who doesn't speak, only participates to create a natural environment.
stunt person	A stunt person is someone who substitutes an actor in dangerous scenes or the ones that involve physical daring.

TV JOBS	Definition
newscaster	A newscaster is someone who broadcasts/tells the news.
sitcom writer	A sitcom writer is someone who writes humorous scripts for television, cinema and stage plays.
talk show host	A talk show host is someone who runs a show, talks to guest and sometimes to the audience, to provide entertainment.

COMPUTER JOBS	Definition
computer programmer	A computer programmer is someone who is in charge of writing the code that computers read in order to operate properly.
network installer	A network installer is someone who is responsible for installing and maintaining computer communication networks.
software designer	A computer software designer is someone who creates and tests software applications.

PUBLISHING JOBS	Definition
editorial director	An editorial director is someone who is responsible of planning, coordinating and editing the written content for publication.
page designer	A page designer is someone who organizes the way a page is presented.
photo editor	A photo editor is someone who selects and prepares photos.