

Compound adjectives

These are some key words to talk about cultural differences and travelers characteristics.

Culturally aware:

People need to be culturally aware to understand why Muslim women cover their hair with a scarf.

Culturally sensitive:

If you are culturally sensitive you will not make fun of people who kiss on the cheek three times.

Nonconforming:

She's nonconforming. She never behaves according to society's usual standards of behavior.

Nonjudgmental:

You have to be nonjudgmental to accept and respect people's differences.

Openhearted:

If you are openhearted it'll be much easier for you to make friends when you travel.

Open-minded:

He's open-minded. He accepts the fact that everyone is different and everyone acts differently.

Self-assured:

Being self-assured is going to help you speak other languages, because you will feel confident.

Self-aware:

It is much easier to modify your behavior if you are self-aware of what you need to change.

Self-motivated:

People need to be self-motivated to travel abroad on their own.

Self-reliant

You don't depend on anyone if you are self-reliant.